

These pages were created
using info. from a Wildlife Fact File
binder collection series.

A badger is a

mammal

How many years can
a badger live?

15

The underground den where a badger lives is also called a

settle

The best time to see
a badger is in the Summer

Badgers eat plants and animals. This makes them

omnivores

Badgers can be found in open prairies and plains in
The western United States & Canada.

Badgers are widely
found in

Europe & Asia

From nose to tail
a badger is

2-3 feet in length

A badger's height
can be

12 inches to
their shoulder

The chipmunk is an omnivore. That means they can eat seeds, acorns, nuts, mice, eggs & insects.

Eastern chipmunks differ from other chipmunks because they have two fewer grinding teeth.

A chipmunk's cheek pouches can stretch to be almost as big as the size of their head.

Chipmunks have a gap between these two types of teeth.

molars & incisors

How do chipmunks aid in propagation?

Through the germination of their buried seeds.

How much food can a chipmunk store in its burrows?

Up to 8 pounds.

What word is Latin
for raccoon?

L O T O R

In Latin what does the word raccoon mean?

"one who washes"

Name two differences between raccoons that live in the north & those from the south.

Thick fur coats &
long periods sleeping.

What 3 areas in the United States will you not see raccoons?

Parts of the Rocky Mountains, Utah & Nevada.

Raccoons can live over how many years in the wild?

Over ten years.

Name two relatives of the raccoon?

pandas & coatimundis

How many miles can a polar bear swim per hour?

Six

How many minutes can a polar bear stay underwater?

two

What covers the bottoms of polar bears feet?

fur

What is the main
meal of polar bears?

seals

Polar bears are the largest land carnivore in

the world

Polar bears live along
which edge of the arctic ice cap?

southern

The jaguar is the largest American

wildcat

What are two ways
to tell apart a jaguar
& a leopard?

A jaguar's head &
jaw are both larger.

Jaguars can be found in Central & _____ America.

South

Jaguars are _____ mammals.

endangered

Jaguars can live _____.

22 years.

How many subspecies
of jaguars are known?

eight